The news is delivered to the readers of the city of Louisville and the people of all its adjacent counties.

Entered as Second-Class Matter, Postoffice at Louisville, Ky., March 1, 1879.
No. 1007.

WEDNESDAY, JAN 22

Gov. Bradley was in Washington last week, arguing the appointment of D. R. Collier for attorney of the Port, Louisville. Many think that Mr. Bradley will carry his point and that Barrett will be knocked out.

Judge Gordon, attorney for Howard, in his opening statement for the defense, said: "I am not here to extenuate or to excuse this crime against the Commonwealth. Wm. Goebel was a distinguished man and was cut down at the threshold of a career in public life which promised to be great. I followed him politically, and I have said at all times that no one could have feeling against him to justify such a deed." He admitted that the shot was fired from Secretary of State's office. He also admitted that the death of Mr. Goebel was the result of a conspiracy, but asserted that Howard was not a party to it. Every trial shows conclusively that a murder conspiracy was formed and that two of its main promoters are now in Indiana. Doubtless the day will come, when they will have to answer for this most dastardly murder, just the same as the tramp who assassinated for money.

J. M. McKnight is now under sentence to serve six years in the "Pen," for crooked work in the German National Bank which failed five or six years ago. It is a light sentence for a great offense.

"Uncle Tom's Cabin" is getting hard kicks from the Lexington people. It deserves all it is getting for it is an exaggerated narrative of a condition that passed away nearly forty years ago.

Mr. L. H. Cabell, of Camp Knox, returned from Frankfort last week. He reports that everything is moving along harmoniously at the Capital, and that every thing points to an interesting session. Mr. Cabell entered the race for Commissioner of the Penitentiary at a late date, and while he was defeated, he made a very favorable impression.

Admiral Sampson is not as strong a man as the Sampson who slew his enemies many, many years ago. The Admiral lost his power when he claimed a victory not his own. Readers of the Bible are familiar with the loss of power in the other case.

The trial of Jim Howard, now on trial for the murder of the late Gov. Goebel, will be concluded this week. The general opinion is, that he will be convicted. In fact the testimony for the State is stronger than at the first trial at which he was given the death penalty.

Schley is receiving the endorsements of Legislatures in several States and we trust this work will continue. The House vote in Frankfort last week commending Schley stood 70 to 0, the Republicans refusing to vote. He is the man who deserves credit and everybody knows it as well as Cervera and no one would doubt Cervera's conviction as to who whipped him.

The Burkesville Herald can not face the music and squirms and twists to extricate itself from the embarrassing position it occupies by reproducing our article of Jan 1st as its editorial. Its claim that it was taken from the Commercial is so thin that a blind man could see that such was not the case for the article would have been as foreign to Louisville as any place under the sun. The Commercial would not admit Louisville to be a small town away from railroads, it would not state that Jefferson county was a back county, it would not claim that that city was free from this thief, the huggler and the tramp. We offered Mr. Scott $500 for the Commercial of that date containing that article. He declines to accept it and in return offers us $500 for a copy of the Herald of any date containing our article "word for word." We admit that we can not do this for a few words and two or three sentences were slightly changed but full three-fourths of the article appeared word for word as it appeared in the News. There was nothing original in the Herald article except the last line which was "Remember us to your friends." Give credit to whom credit is due in the correct way. That article never appeared in the Commercial nor in any other paper previous to the News.

The Legislature is moving right along in peace and harmony, doing the work that will meet the approbation of the people of this State. For many years past there have been discords, dissensions and strife between Democratic Legislatures, resulting disastrously to the Democracy and the State's best interest, but the present assembly seems to be made of wiser heads and we firmly believe will brush aside all differences of the past and move out on the lines of business. It has plenty of work to do and is able to do it. The restricting the State will of course come up and we trust will be settled to the best interest of the State. This Legislature will probably provide a way to collect means for the building of a new Capital which is badly needed, although the small number of Republican members are threatening to defeat it, unless concessions are made to them in restricting. The good politicians will of course understand their methods and steer the other way.

LIBERTY.
Mr. G. R. Wilkinson was forty years old on the 14th and gave a dinner to a few friends and relatives.

The first service in the new Baptist church will be held on the evening of the fourth Sunday in this month.

Misses Minnie Shannon and Mattie Estes, who have been visiting Mr. and Mrs. P. H. Taylor, have returned to their homes.

Messrs. John B. Coffey and Tom Hunn, Columbus, passed through town one day last week, en route home from Lincoln.

Miss Maggie M. G. Hardy, who formerly resided near Liberty, was married at McKinney to Mr. Walter Webb, of Jumbo, Lincoln county. F. J. J. Q. Montgomery performed the ceremony.

Eld. Lawrence Williams, of Morepeller, preached at the Christian church on Monday night. He went from there to Somerset.

Mr. William Morris, whose house was burned election night, is having considerable trouble getting his insurance. He was insured in the Farmer's Home Company. When the time came for settlement the company wanted Mr. Morris to knock off $500 which he has so far refused to do.

Judge W. G. Davis purchased the property occupied by George Gillock and removed to it. Mr. Gillock bought a house from Mrs. Cochran, and Mr. John Helm sold to Mrs. Cochran.

Richard Wheeler, of Chelf's Ridge, was fined five dollars for trespassing upon the lands of Mrs. Elizabeth King.

Wm. Workman, of color, was fined $25 and five days in jail for leaving his wife. The cases named were the first tried before the new officers.

The nomination and election of Hon. James B. McCreary as the next Democratic Senator from Kentucky was eminently satisfactory to the Democrats of Casey county. The graceful manner in which his opponents withdrew in the caucus cannot fail to meet the approval of the Democracy of the State. Long and faithful service in behalf of his party, together with a more extensive experience in the affairs of the State than any of his competitors, made the Madison county statesman the logical candidate. With Mr. McCreary and Mr. Blackburn the Commonwealth of Kentucky will be well represented in the Senate of the United States.

The Secret of Long Life.
Consists in keeping all the main organs of the body in healthy, regular action, and in quickly destroying deadly disease germs. A Prominent Chicago Woman Speaks.
Mrs. Rosa Tyler, of Chicago, Vice President of the Woman's Alliance, in speaking of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy, says: "I suffered with a severe cold this winter which threatened to run into pneumonia. I tried different remedies but I seemed to grow worse and medicine upset my stomach. A friend advised me to try Chamberlain's Cough Remedy and I found it was pleasant to take and it relieved me at once. I am now entirely recovered, saved a doctor's bill, time and suffering, and I will never be without this splendid medicine again." For sale by M. C. Green.

SPRING IS COMING.

In a very short time we will begin to receive our Spring Stock, (and we want to say right here that it will be the best you ever saw in Columbia.) At closing out sales of Manufacturers and Jobbers we bought largely of several lines of goods, and while in November and December we did a larger business than ever before yet a great many of these goods are unsold and must be sold within the next thirty days to make room for our Spring Stock. In order to clean out this stock, we have determined to sell them to Cash Buyers at Whole-Sale prices.

These Lines Consist of

Overcoats, Winter Suits, Bed Comforts and Blankets, Men's Ladies' and Children's Underwear, Hoods, Facemasks, Ready made Skirts and Undershirts, Winter Dress Goods, Men's and Boys' shirts, Suspenders, Gloves, Hosiery, Handkerchiefs, Neckwear, Ladies' and Children's Cloaks, Wraps, Fur Capes, Scarfs and lots of other goods. This is no idle chat. We mean just what we say. The goods are here and must be closed out.

We also have full lines of seasonable goods. If you need Plows, Plow Points, Gearing, Grub Hoes, Mattocks, Fence Wire or any thing for early Farm Work, come to us. We've got 'em. We will guarantee you the best goods for the least money.

Ed. Lawrence Williams, Montpelier was in Columbia last Saturday.

Mr. S. H. Brockman, Glensfork, was here the first of the week.

Messrs. H. C. Walker and W. L. Grady were here the first of court.

Mr. T. J. Johnston and Mr. S. G. Banks, Cane Valley, were here Monday.

Deputy Collector Geo. Nell, spent last Sunday with his family at this place.

Mr. J. H. Pelly and Mr. E. L. Reese, Pellyton, were here the first of the week.

Judge Jas. Garnett was in Campbellville on professional business last week.

Dr. C. A. Cox and his son, Mr. Chas. Cox, of Stanford, were in Columbia last Sunday.

Mr. Bartlett, traveling salesman for a medicine company, spent last Sunday in Columbia.

Mr. J. D. Sharp, of Amanda, was in town Monday and dropped "a dollar in the slot."

Mr. J. P. Selce and his little son Eugene Danson, Green county, was in Columbia Monday.

Dr. W. T. Griesman and Mr. Lee Griesman, Bliss, were mixing with their friends here Monday.

Mr. T. P. Jeffries, an old and respected citizen of the Zion neighborhood, is in a low state of health.

Mr. C. M. Herriford and wife, Burksville, visited the latter's mother, in this county, the first of the week.

Mr. Y. D. Mann, of Metcalfe county on his return from Frankfort, spent a few days with relatives in this section.

Mr. F. M. Frazier, of this place, has accepted a situation with a grocery firm, Middleboro, and left for that point last week.

Mr. Shes With, representing Gillespie Shells & Co., Clarks, Knoxville, Tenn., interested some of our merchants last Saturday.

Mr. W. H. Waggoner of Claydon Landing, was in town Monday. He is visiting his father, Mr. W. M. Wagner, who is a little sick.

Mr. G. A. Dobsony was at the burying of his brother here last Friday but returned to Frankfort the next day to attend his duty as a Legislator.

Capt. W. E. Cabell was in Frankfort and Louisville last week. It is our understanding that Mr. Cabell will return to Middleboro at an early date.

Mr. A. B. Gandy and wife, Mr. W. A. Chandler and daughter and Miss Kate Douglas, accompanied the remains of Mrs. Triplett from Campbellville to this place.

Mr. J. N. Coffey left last Saturday for Blair, Ohio. Mr. Coffey will be that section several weeks taking care of the interest of Hughes & Coffey whose investments are rather extensive.

We understand that Mr. J. McCord, formerly of Paris, Texas, has purchased of Mrs. Holladay the farm upon which he has been residing since he was a boy. He is now a resident of this county.

Capt. J. S. Chapman, of Oliveville, who was crippled some weeks ago, was able to be in Columbia one day last week. We trust he will soon be entirely well. To-day is the fifth anniversary of his marriage which he would have celebrated but for the unfortunate accident that resulted in keeping him in his room.

The first years of her married life were spent in Columbia, removing to Campbellville about fifteen years ago. She was a lady highly respected and had been a consistent member of the Christian Church since girlhood.

The funeral services were conducted at Campbellville Sunday forenoon in the presence of a large circle of friends, after which the remains were conveyed to Lebanon and interred in the city cemetery.

The deceased leaves a husband and one daughter, the latter about eight years old, a father and several brothers and sisters, all of whom have the sympathy of this community.

A Good Citizen Dead.

Bro. Oger Reed Yates, of Gradyville, is no more. He was born Nov. 5, 1838; died at his late home in Gradyville Jan. 15, 1902. He was 75 years 2 months and 14 days old. He died as he lived, with clean hands and a pure heart, loved by every one who knew him. He was a member of the Baptist Church for 50 years, firm in his religious faith, his life a faithful testimony to his church and a true blessing to his family and the community.

His lips never spoke an oath, no liquor ever went down his throat. His home was open to strangers as well as to friends, and all his trials be recognized the hand of his Maker for his good.

The funeral was held at the Baptist Church by his pastor, assisted by Rev. J. C. Sandage and T. T. Hester. After which he was laid to rest in the old family burying ground. To the bereaved family and numerous friends this community extends its profoundest sympathy.

Death of J. Pierce Dohoney.

Last Wednesday evening the spirit of Mr. J. Pierce Dohoney, of this place, left his mortal body and went to the God who gave him life. For nearly a year Mr. Dohoney had been in failing health, as he thought from a cold, but for the last few months could only speak in a whisper, yet he was cheerful and believed that his trouble would pass off and that he would regain good health, but his hopes, for a longer lease of life, were not realized, for long trouble wore his course. It was his consumption that carried him to his grave. Mr. Dohoney had been a very active citizen, on the farm and in buying and selling stock. He was a man honest and upright in all his dealings and therefore had many warm personal friends who have been solicited of his condition since his death. We can truly say that he enjoyed a broad acquaintance and was indeed and in truth a big-hearted man. Had he lived until April 1901 we would have been 50 years old. He was a member of the Baptist Church, though not an active one, yet on his death-bed he stated that he was ready to go. He leaves a wife and eight children who have the heart-felt sympathy of the people in this section in their grief and trying loss.

Only one brother, Mr. G. A. Dobsony, of Washington county, and one sister, Mrs. Phelps of Harrodsburg, survive. His death-bed services were held at the home by Rev. Parks Vanhook and the body was interred in the cemetery in this town. Mrs. Dohoney, the wife of the deceased, is in a feeble state of health and was not able to be at the burying. It is hoped that she will soon recover and that she may be spared many years to guard and direct her children.

Mr. and Mrs. Horace Jeffries are now occupying their residence on College avenue.

The crowd in town Monday was not as large as the January court usually brings, though a considerable amount of business was transacted. Trade was not very numerous, and but little stock changed hands. Our business houses were not particularly crowded, though the merchants and other classes of trade did fairly well.

Judge W. W. Jones opened court promptly at 9 o'clock and in two hours concluded his instructions to the grand jury and they proceeded to business. The following gentlemen made up the grand jury:

J. W. Jackson, foreman; W. F. Neat, L. C. Cabell, W. E. Hancock, Josiah Montgomery, Howard Murrell, John W. Blair, Jas. Sudarth, Rufus Jones, Jas. Frankum, R. Reese, Ed. Bennett.

The new oil company.

In a former issue we made mention of the formation of the Mutual Oil and Gas Company in this city with a capital stock of $25,000.00 divided into $10.00 shares, a part of which, will be placed on the market in a few days. This company has leases on 623 acres in the oil bearing district of Wayne county—a section whose production is estimated to be in the neighborhood of 100,000 barrels of oil annually. The company is the largest of its kind in the State and is made of conservative and aggressive business men who do not jump at conclusions or who would rush into wild speculation, hence we expect to see every step taken lead in the direction of development of their valuable territory. It is the intention of the directors to put down the first well in the Parale district, whose producers are now known throughout the country.

The promoters are as follows: W. F. Jeffers, Mechanics, J. N. Coffey and J. H. Hughes, Merchants, Jas. Garritt, Jr., Attorney-at-law, J. O. Russell, Merchant, M. Cravens, Druggist, J. R. Simpson, Lawyer, Middleboro, Ky., Dr. A. B. Jones, Dentist, Stanford, Ky., G. B. Miller, Louisville, Traveling Salesman, E. W. Hopewell, Liveryman, R. P. Paul, Banker, Johnson, W. Jones, Judge of Circuit Court and Vice-President, Monticello Bank, Banking Company, Horace Jeffries, Merchant, E. E. Reed, Merchant, N. H. Tull, Real Estate Dealer, J. B. Tuttle, Merchant, Milltown, Ky., and C. S. Harris.

The above named gentlemen are well and favorably known in this section and will be able to place the company's property in the hands of the people. It will appear in due time to advise those who are seeking a good stock in oil speculation. Subscriptions are coming in and the company expects to place a large per cent. of the stock, offered for sale, in a few weeks and every dollar thus obtained to be honestly applied to the development of the property. A large number of the people, of this section are familiar with the sudden and tremendous advances in the value of land in other oil companies that have secured producing wells. They understand that a good strike often brings a fortune and the failure to drill in the proper place simply means a loss to the amount of the money used in drilling. They all know and realize that nothing but the drill will tell on the correct tale or reveal the value of a territory. They understand that a move of this sort is purely speculative, in each good territory and good property, and that the success of the enterprise is the most thrilling and we believe, the most likely to yield large returns, of any legitimate risk before the people. Of the many companies formed in Southern Kentucky, we feel free in saying that the Mutual is as desirable and well adapted property as any of them and as a conservative set of officers.

If you want to invest a few dollars where the chances are favorable for a good return where the risk is limited to the amount of your investment, only, then visit N. M. Terry, Inc., Columbia, Ky.

The Mutual Oil and Gas Company has decided to issue the first certificate of stock to Miss Emeline Lister, as she is the first lady to seek an investment in the company.

Mr. E. W. Hopewell has removed to the residence owned by Hon. George Nell.

Wheat has advanced, four is higher and the blight is about to rise, rice, oats or no oats.

The Derring Machine Company are out with some of the prettiest calendars we have seen for this year.

The Columbia College now has enrolled about ninety pupils, and every department is moving along nicely.

Mr. T. G. Dillon seems to be a perfect fit in the Livery business. A hand-shake and a smile for all comers.

Mr. Ed. Butler, Jr. and A. W. Robinson, of Green county have rented the farm of Capt. Ed. Butler Sr., in this county and have moved to the same.

The New England Mutual Life Insurance Company has several new calendars in this office to be given to parties heretofore notified. Please call.

There is a heavy demand and strong prices prevailing for cattle than existed last fall. The supply of feed in this county is greater than many contemplated.

W. H. Flowers and Robt. Mitchell, bought of W. H. Gill and Frank Wagner, twenty five head of one and two year old steers at an average of $22.50 per head.

We understand that quite a number of tobacco plant beds were burned last week. It was an excellent time for the work and we trust that a large crop will be grown as it brings the cash.

Quite a number have tested their lungs on the tester at Hall's tin shop and Dr. C. M. Russell held the record with Mr. Tim Bradshaw, Jas. Hughes and Robert Young close second. It cost you nothing—only a blow.

Mr. John W. Flowers was in town Sunday and reported that eight students enrolled in his school. Mr. Flowers enjoys the confidence and esteem of the people interested in education and he deserves it. His school is always increasing in numbers and quality and number of teachers are in attendance, taking the teachers course.

In this issue appears the advertisement of Mr. Jostroll who will open up a new stock of goods in the Tuttle block in the near future. Mr. Jostroll is now doing business in Greenburg and is planning to branch out has decided to put in a good stock in Columbia. He comes to us highly recommended as a true gentleman and a first-class merchant.

The attendance at the College has increased so greatly that an additional instructor has had to be employed and Miss Adelaide La Pierre, of Missouri, has been secured for the position. Miss La Pierre holds a diploma from the Carlisle Training School and is thoroughly equipped by training and experience to do the thorough work for which the College has become noted.

The Columbia Oil Company is forced to abandon its first and only well at a depth of 1000 feet. The drill is fast, in the bottom of the hole and for more than week the driller has worked to free the well from iron under rocks to go deeper. It was the intention to go to a depth of 1800 feet and should be secured soon, in paying quantity, but the driller cannot proceed without an extra cost of several hundred dollars to the company and likewise to himself. Work will begin at an early date, on well No. 2 about three miles down the stream on a spot of ground owned by a very desirable. In this well it will cost every dollar it has in testing that locally unless a good strike should be made at a shallow depth. Many misfortunes, as it were, have delayed work with this company but we trust for speedier action and better results in the near future. The grade of oil the well abandoned was all that could be desired but the quantity was not sufficient.

Mr. Eugene Bell, who has been the proprietor of the Grand Hotel, 11th and Broadway, Louisville, for the past several years, has leased the Phoenix building corner 7th and Market, and will open a first-class hotel the 15th of March. The building will be thoroughly overhauled and valuable improvements made. It will be known as "Bell's Hotel," and it is the most convenient stand in the city for country merchants. It is the intention of the proprietor to make this hotel headquarters for political convention and all other large gatherings. "Ad" in today's News.

We desire to thank many of our subscribers for giving The News credit in answering advertisements sent in to its columns. We further ask that all who answer advertisements, by writing or in person, whether local or otherwise out of our county to say, "I saw it in The News." This will do no harm, will satisfy the advertiser that our paper is worth his patronage and will result in good to us. Don't forget this.

The News goes to quite a number who have left this part of the State and found more pleasant and profitable surroundings in other sections and other States and while many have been sending the dollars there are a good number who have not dealt with us kindly. We trust that others who pay up and help us keep the wolf from our door. Send money, money or stamps.
